PUBLIC DISCLAIMER

The attention of the Nigeria Premier Football League (NPFL) has been drawn to an online advertisement circulating on social media and other platforms, purporting to be a recruitment notice for photographers on behalf of the NPFL.

We wish to state categorically that:

1. The said advertisement did not originate from the NPFL.
2. NPFL has not authorized any individual, group, or organization to recruit photographers or staff on its behalf through the channels referenced in the publication.
3. The email address and contact information contained in the advert are fraudulent and are in no way connected to the NPFL.
4. This publication is a clear case of impersonation and misrepresentation aimed at misleading unsuspecting members of the public. The NPFL dissociates itself entirely from the advert and warns the public to disregard it in its entirety.
5. The matter has been reported to the Economic and Financial Crimes Commission (EFCC), for investigation and prosecution of those behind this fraudulent activity.

The NPFL remains committed to upholding the integrity of Nigerian football and protecting the interests of all stakeholders. Any official information from the NPFL will be disseminated only through our verified Official Website: <https://www.npfl.com.ng>

We advise the general public, especially football enthusiasts and media practitioners, to exercise caution and verify any information relating to NPFL through our official platforms.

Signed,

Management
